KATHRYN MARKEL FINE ARTS PRESENTS AN EXHIBITION OF NEW WORK BY ARTIST KY ANDERSON IN NEW YORK CITY

I Make Plans With the Landscape features new work by artist Ky Anderson
June 20th-July 26th, 2024

NEW YORK, NY — June 13th, 2024 — Kathryn Markel Fine Arts is pleased to announce “I Make Plans With the Landscape,” an exhibition of the newest paintings by Ky Anderson. It will be Anderson’s third solo exhibition with the gallery and will take place at 529 West 20th Street from June 20th to July 26th, 2024. A reception for the artist will be held on Thursday, June 20th from 6-8PM.

Ideas take center stage in Ky Anderson’s abstract paintings. She engages in a continuous process of improvisation and translation using a visual language of bold curves and solid geometry that contrasts with passages of delicate transparencies. Using a variety of mediums, she works on multiple paintings simultaneously, building up translucent layers of oil and acrylic, as ideas flow freely from painting to painting. Layered paint covers past gestures and thin paint reveals the history of the process. This serial process creates interconnected bodies of work but each painting stands as evidence of the search, exploring endless possibilities of shape, color, and line.

Anderson’s abstractions always evolve in response to her world. These recent paintings reflect the fact that after living 25 years in Brooklyn, Anderson has spent the last 4 in KC, in an entirely different environment filled with trees, space and a midwestern light. She says, “Each piece in this body of work reflects my experiences and observations in my new setting. Suspended between abstraction and landscape, this body of work speaks of flowing water, trees falling, dramatic weather, a city at dusk, the changing light through the seasons, and the cycles of life and death, both in flora and in the people around me.”
